

Musical Pairs

Time-traveling Billy Joe went to see a musical play but got confused because there were so many. His solution? Seeing them all in this order: the ones that reprised themselves, the ones that acted the same, and finally the ones that were the same, with a higher priority if they did two or more of them. Year after year, shifting around aimlessly through their first premieres, he finally saw them all. In what order did Billy Joe see the plays?

Shift every pair by the year of the premiere date.
